

Free Map
Inside

TIME FOR TIPPERARY

VISITOR DISCOVERY GUIDE

Experience the Past and Present:
Historical Attractions and Thrilling Activities Throughout Tipperary

Comhairle Contae Thiobraid Árann
Tipperary County Council

Time for TIPPERARY

TIME FOR TIPPERARY

TIME FOR TIPPERARY

TABLE OF CONTENTS

TIME TO VISIT

	see page		see page
1 Brú Ború	4	16 Nenagh Castle	7
2 Cahir Castle	4	17 Nenagh Heritage Centre	7
3 Cashel Folk Village	4	18 Ormond Castle	7
4 Cashel Heritage Centre	5	19 Rock of Cashel	7
5 Cormackstown Heritage Centre	5	20 Roscrea Castle, Gardens and Damer House / Black Mills	7
6 Dove Hill Shopping Village	5	21 South Tipperary Arts Centre	7
7 Fethard Horse Country Experience	5	22 Swiss Cottage	8
8 Glen of Aherlow	5	23 The Main Guard	8
9 Holycross Abbey	5	24 The Source Arts Centre	8
10 John Hanly & Co Woollen Mills	6	25 Thomas MacDonagh Museum	8
11 Killaloe River Cruises	6	26 Tipperary Excel Centre	8
12 Lár na Páirce	6	27 Tipperary Museum of Hidden History	8
13 Littleton Labyrinth	6
14 Mitchelstown Cave	6
15 Nenagh Arts Centre	6

TIME TO EXPLORE

	see page
Destination Lough Derg	9
Munster Vales	9
The Butler Trail	9
Horse Country	9
Suir Blueway	9

TIME TO DISCOVER

	see page
Towns and Villages	10
Ballina-Killaloe	10
Cahir	10
Carrick-on-Suir	10
Cashel	10
Clonmel	11
Cloughjordan	11
Fethard	11
Nenagh	11
Roscrea	12
Templemore	12
Tipperary Town	12
Thurles	12
Loughmore	12
Lorrha	12

TIME TO ENJOY

	see page
Festivals and Events	13
Horse Racing	13
Activities	14
Golf	14
Family Fun	14
Walks and Trails	14
Farmers' Markets	14
Tipperary Food Experiences	15
Crafts and Gifts	15
Hidden Gems	15
Tourist Information	15
Viewing Points	15

Designed by OpticNerve
Publisher & Copyright:
Tipperary Tourism CLG

TIME TO VISIT

From medieval castles to mountain views, Tipperary is home to a rich variety of iconic attractions. This section highlights some of the must-see experiences - places that capture the spirit, beauty and history of the destination. Whether you are a first-time visitor or a returning adventurer, there's something here to inspire you.

1 Brú Ború

Cashel, E25 YE89
062-61122
Open year round
bruboru.ie

Located at the foot of the Rock of Cashel, Brú Ború is a cultural hub and heritage centre featuring a theatre, craft shop, Sounds of History exhibition, genealogy suite, and conference facilities. As an affiliate of Comhaltas Ceoltóirí Éireann, visitors can enjoy live performances of traditional music, song, and dance during the summer. Explore the depth of Irish culture and heritage at Brú Ború.

2 Cahir Castle

Cahir, E21 P652
046-942 2300
Open year round
heritageireland.ie

One of Ireland's best-preserved medieval fortresses, Cahir Castle sits on an island in the River Suir with high walls and towers. For centuries the home to the Butlers, Barons of Cahir, this castle witnessed many rivalries, rebellions, and conquests. Guided tours reveal these stories and the castle's impressive defences, which remained impregnable until artillery was used against it in 1599.

3 Cashel Folk Village

Cashel, E25 A470
087-915 1316
Open year round
cashelfolkvillage.com

This museum offers an immersive journey into Irish history through its collection of artefacts and exhibits including a 1916 Easter Rising Garden of Remembrance and a beautifully preserved 19th century Gypsy caravan which housed a family of 16. Each exhibit provides a vivid journey through Ireland's past, reflecting the resilience and hardships that shaped the nation from the Irish Famine to the War of Independence.

4 Cashel Heritage Centre

Cashel, E25 W594
085-185 4774
Open year round
cashel.ie

Located on Cashel's Main Street, the Heritage Centre displays a large-scale model of Cashel in the 1640s, revealing the town's hidden historical treasures. Visitors can view the Charters of Cashel, signed by King Charles II in 1663 and King James II in 1687. Free maps and tourist information are available, along with assistance for accommodation and bookings.

5 Cormackstown Heritage Centre

Holycross, E41 Y658
085-713 1584
Open by appointment

Showcasing a vast private collection of rural memorabilia spanning three centuries. Explore a dairy with a traditional creamery lab, a tinsmith's workshop, and recreated spaces like a pub, shop, schoolroom, and farmhouse kitchen. Discover tools of carpenters, cobblers, wheelwrights, and blacksmiths, brought to life through guided tours.

6 Dove Hill Shopping Village

Carrick-On-Suir, E32 X576
051-645 013
Open year round
meadowsandbyrne.com

Dove Hill Shopping Village, just outside Carrick-on-Suir, blends heritage and modern retail. Formerly the Tipperary Crystal production plant, it celebrates a rich history of craftsmanship. Established in 1988, Tipperary Crystal became renowned for hand-cut crystal. Today, the site is a vibrant destination featuring Blarney Woollen Mills, Meadows & Byrne, Jilly & Joe's café, and an array of fashion, homeware, and lifestyle stores.

7 Fethard Horse Country Experience

Fethard, E91 R652
052-613 0439
Open year round
fhcexperience.ie

This interactive museum explores 2,000 years of history, delving into the relationship between the people, the land, and the horse. Visitors can enjoy a journey through stories and heritage tied to equestrian culture. Housed in a historic building dating back to the 1600s, it has served as an almshouse, town hall, and marketplace. The museum is also the booking point for Coolmore Stud Farm tours.

8 Glen of Aherlow

Aherlow, E34 DW26
062-56331
Open year round
aherlow.com

The Glen of Aherlow is a lush valley offering endless opportunities for walking, cycling, horse riding, and fishing. Enjoy local hospitality in its restaurants, pubs and accommodations. Visit Christ the King statue, explore the family-friendly Nature Park, and discover ancient sites like St Pecaun's Holy Well. For adventurers, the Galtee Mountains await, boasting five stunning corrie lakes.

9 Holycross Abbey

Holycross, E41PH01
086-166 5869
Open year round
holycrossabbey.ie

Holycross Abbey, a restored medieval Cistercian monastery on the banks of the River Suir, was founded by Dónal Mór Ó Briain, King of Limerick, in 1182 AD. It houses the relic of the True Cross, drawing pilgrims since its inception. The Butlers of Ormond carried out major renovations around 1400 AD, including the enshrinement of the Ormond Relic. Many unique architectural features date back to the 15th century rebuild.

TIME TO VISIT

10 John Hanly & Co Woollen Mills

Nenagh, E45 P789
067-24278
Open year round
johnhanly.com

Since 1893, John Hanly & Co Woollen Mills has been weaving tradition and quality at Ballyartella, near Nenagh. Located by the Nenagh River, the mill's factory shop offers luxurious throws, blankets, scarves, and fashionable Irish caps and hats. Visitors can enjoy an enriched retail experience while learning about the history, heritage, and ongoing story of this family-run weaving enterprise.

11 Killaloe River Cruises

Ballina-Killaloe, V94 A402
086-814 0559
Open year round
killaloerivercruises.com

The one hour guided tours of the River Shannon and Lough Derg offer breathtaking scenery and engaging commentary on notable landmarks. Sail past Beal Boru, Brian Boru's historic stronghold, and learn about the Killaloe Canal and the Shannon Scheme of 1929. Enjoy stunning views, framed by the Slieve Bernagh and Arra Mountains, aboard a modern, purpose-built boat with seating both indoor and out.

12 Lár na Páirce

Thurles, E41 C6W8
0504-27534
Open year round
larnapairce.ie

Lár na Páirce is the first museum dedicated to Gaelic Games. Located in Thurles, the birthplace of the Gaelic Athletic Association (GAA), it houses Ireland's oldest collection of Gaelic Games heritage. Exhibitions cover hurling, Gaelic football, handball, camogie, hurley making, sports broadcasting, and the Sam Melbourne Collection of GAA memorabilia.

13 Littleton Labyrinth

52.61509, -7.70560
Open year round
tipperary.com

The Littleton Labyrinth is an 8km (5mile) trail along a former Bord na Móna rail track, blending rich ecclesiastical heritage with peatland biodiversity. Starting in the Slieveardagh Hills near Killenaule, it crosses Littleton Bog and continues to Horse and Jockey. The route includes part of the Derrynaflan Loop, church sites, holy wells, and sacred places with scenic beauty and history spanning 15 centuries.

14 Mitchelstown Cave

Cahir, E21 H920
052-746 7246
Open year round
mitchelstowncave.com

Discovered in 1833, Mitchelstown Cave is a large and complex cave system. Although the entrance to the cave is modest, the subterranean world will take your breath away by its sheer scale and depth. Guided tours follow ancient passageways, exploring cathedral-sized caverns adorned with dripstone formations, stalactites, stalagmites and huge calcite columns, explaining the history and geology of the cave.

15 Nenagh Arts Centre

Nenagh, E45 NX26
067-34400
Open year round
nenagharts.com

Nenagh Arts Centre is a vibrant arts space that presents an ambitious multi-disciplinary programme of events. The centre aims to enhance both individual and community wellbeing through its diverse offerings. With a 194-seater theatre and studio spaces, check the website to see what events or exhibitions are taking place. The centre also houses the beautiful Nenagh Tourist Information Centre.

16 Nenagh Castle

Nenagh, E45 YP80
067-33850
Open year round
nenagh.ie

Nenagh Castle, the town's oldest building, dates back to the 13th century. Built by Theobald FitzWalter, it served as the main seat of the Butler family until 1391. The castle features Ireland's finest cylindrical keep, incorporated into the curtain walls of a five-sided courtyard.

17 Nenagh Heritage Centre

Nenagh, E45 X588
067-33850
Open year round
nenagh.ie

The Nenagh Heritage and Genealogy Centre offers a glimpse into the area's past. Originally part of a gaol complex, the Centre showcases local history, including the condemned cells used for executions between 1842 and 1858, with an opportunity to walk in the footsteps of past prisoners. After the gaol's closure in 1887, the buildings were repurposed by the Sisters of Mercy for education.

18 Ormond Castle

Carrick-on-Suir, E32 CX59
051-640 787
Open year round
heritageireland.ie

Ormond Castle is the finest example of an Elizabethan manor house in Ireland. Built in 1565 by Thomas, 10th Earl of Ormond, in honour of Queen Elizabeth, the castle features a magnificent great hall adorned with exquisite stucco plasterwork, including portraits of Queen Elizabeth and Edward VI. Audiovisuals and technological installations bring its history to life.

19 Rock of Cashel

Cashel, E25 KX44
062-61437
Open year round
heritageireland.ie

With the most impressive cluster of medieval buildings in Ireland, among its monuments are a round tower, high cross, Romanesque chapel, Gothic cathedral, and a 15th century tower house. Originally the seat of the Kings of Munster, St. Patrick is said to have converted King Aenghus here. Highlights include Cormac's Chapel, home to the only surviving Romanesque frescoes in Ireland.

20 Roscrea Castle, Gardens and Damer House / Black Mills

Roscrea, E53 F652
0505-21850
Open seasonally
heritageireland.ie

In the heart of Roscrea, visit the 13th century stone castle featuring a gate tower, curtain walls, and corner towers. Damer House, an 18th century pre-Palladian residence, boasts elegant architecture, including nine bay windows and period furnishings. It also houses Damer House Gallery, a contemporary art gallery. The grounds also feature an impressive garden, a restored mill, and St. Crónán's high cross and pillar stone.

21 South Tipperary Arts Centre

Clonmel, E91 W658
052-612 7877
Open year round
southtippartscentre.ie

Founded to be the focal point for the arts in Clonmel and South Tipperary, the South Tipperary Arts Centre brings both national and international arts to the region. It enhances engagement and opportunities for arts practitioners, audiences, and visitors. The centre features exhibitions, workshops, and events.

22 Swiss Cottage

Cahir, E21 DX07
046-940 7005
Open seasonally
heritageireland.ie

Built in 1810 for Richard and Emily Butler, the 1st Earl and Countess of Glengall, Swiss Cottage is a beautiful example of Cottage Orn  architecture, possibly designed by John Nash. This fanciful cottage, ideal at the time for picnics and garden parties, features elegant rooms inspired by nature. With its picturesque charm and unique style, it's a hidden gem worth visiting.

23 The Main Guard

Clonmel, E91 P7Y8
052-612 7484
Open seasonally
heritageireland.ie

In the 17th century, County Tipperary was a palatinate ruled by James Butler, Duke of Ormond, who built this courthouse in Clonmel. Later repurposed as a barracks, it became known as the Main Guard. The two-storey building, inspired by Sir Christopher Wren, has been recently restored. Its open arcade of sandstone columns hosts regular exhibitions and events.

24 The Source Arts Centre

Thurles, E41 A4E8
0504-90204
Open year round
thesourceartscentre.ie

The Source Arts Centre offers a diverse, year-round programme of cultural events, including theatre, music, comedy, dance, cinema, and children's theatre. The centre features a 250-seat theatre, visual art gallery, and community studio space.

25 Thomas MacDonagh Museum

Cloughjordan, E53 EV29
0505-42785
Open year round
macdonaghmuseum.ie

The Thomas MacDonagh Museum, located in Cloughjordan village, focuses on the life and legacy of Thomas MacDonagh, Tipperary's signatory of the Irish Proclamation. The museum delves into his role in the 1916 Rising, as well as his personal life as a family man, teacher, poet, dramatist, and Gaelic language activist. The museum features a dynamic programme of exhibitions.

26 Tipperary Excel Centre

Tipperary, E34 KP60
062-80520
Open year round
tipperaryexcel.com

The Tipperary Excel Centre is a centre for arts, culture, and heritage. Its diverse facilities include the Simon Ryan Theatre, Art Gallery, Cinema, caf  and a Heritage Centre with Tourist Information. The Tipperary Family History Research Centre provides genealogical search services. Visitors can explore permanent exhibitions on the War of Independence and enjoy the annual Heritage Festival.

27 Tipperary Museum of Hidden History

Clonmel, E91 Y891
052-616 5252
Open year round
hiddenhistory.ie

Discover the stories of Tipperary and its people from ancient times to the present day in this state-of-the-art museum which features artefacts from diverse collections, including military, social history, archaeology, and geology. Visitors can immerse themselves in tales of castles, conquests, and local heroes. The museum offers a multi-sensory experience with free admission and audio guides.

TIME TO EXPLORE

Munster Vales

munstervales.com

Explore the breathtaking landscapes of the Munster Vales, from lush valleys and cascading waterfalls to shimmering lakes and rugged coastline. Hike to the five highest peaks, bike through dramatic gorges, and immerse yourself in Ireland's legendary beauty. Discover charming villages, vibrant market towns, hearty breakfasts, and lively Irish evenings filled with story and song.

Horse Country

horsecountry.ie

Ireland's global reputation as a leader in the breeding and racing of the Thoroughbred is long established. These exclusive experiences provide an unparalleled chance to immerse yourself in the heart and passion of Irish racing and breeding. With an array of captivating visitor experiences and attractions, you can meet the breeders, the trainers, the jockeys and the unsung heroes.

Destination Lough Derg

discoverloughderg.ie

Explore Lough Derg's outdoor activities and heritage. Take a boat trip to enjoy the lake's views, or paddle along the Lough Derg Blueway with its 160km of trails. Anglers will find fishing for trout, pike, and salmon, with boat rentals on offer. Walk the Lough Derg Way, connecting picturesque towns and villages or bring the family for a host of water activities. Don't miss the historic Lorrha and pretty Terryglass.

The Butler Trail

tipperary.com

The medieval heart of Tipperary, The Butler Trail explores the towns of Cahir, Clonmel, Carrick-on-Suir, Nenagh, Roscrea and Thurles. This captivating journey unravels the legacy of the powerful Butler family, whose influence shaped the county's history over five centuries. Discover their castles, manors, and churches. Interpretive signage guides you through each town, uncovering stories of rivalry and resilience.

Suir Blueway

tipperary.com

With 53km (33mi) of paddling trails and a 21km (13mi) cycle route, the Blueway is perfect for all the family. Kayak or canoe on flowing waters, go for a cycle along river banks, take a hike up nearby mountains, or stroll in the bustling medieval towns and villages from Cahir to Clonmel and on to Carrick-on-Suir. Discover centuries-old castles, tower houses and churches, and their history, romance, intrigue and deadly rivalries.

TIME TO DISCOVER

Discover Tipperary's charming towns and villages, each with its own unique character, history, and local treasures. Whether you're drawn to scenic lakeside spots, historic sites, or bustling market towns, find the perfect place to add to your journey. This section features some highlights, but there's so much more to explore. Scan the QR code to discover more towns and villages worth visiting in Tipperary.

Ballina-Killaloe

52.80921, -8.43741
www.discoverloughderg.ie

The twin towns are linked by a 13-arch bridge across the River Shannon. With the Arra Mountains of Tipperary to the East and Clare's highest peak Moylussa to the west, this is the perfect base for hiking, water sports, cycling, or relaxing in one of the many eateries. Enjoy the Bridges walk with a playground and outdoor swimming pool; a cycle and foot path to nearby Birdhill; and historic landmarks St. Flannan's Cathedral; Brian Ború Fort.

Cahir

52.37461, -7.92520
visitcahir.ie

Cahir is known for its rich history and landmarks. Explore Cahir Castle, set on an island in the River Suir, and visit the Blind Piper Statue, honouring Uilleann player Edward Keating Hyland. Discover heritage sites like St. Paul's Church with its Sensory Garden, and Cahir Presbyterian Church, while enjoying the variety of shops and cafés. Outdoor enthusiasts can explore parks and trails, including Inch Field and the Coronation Walk.

Carrick-on-Suir

52.34527, -7.41095
explore carrickonsuir.com

One of seven medieval walled towns in Tipperary, Carrick-on-Suir was originally located on the northern banks of the River Suir, with remnants of the town walls, including the West Gate, still visible. Influenced by the Butler family, the town features Ormond Castle and the charming Old Bridge from 1447. The Sean Healy Park offers access to the Suir Blueway, ideal for walking, cycling or paddling.

Cashel

52.51828, -7.88605
cashel.ie

Once the seat of the Kings of Munster, the historic Rock of Cashel is home to the most impressive group of medieval buildings in Ireland. Explore the 13th century ruins of Hore Abbey, visit Cashel Folk Museum, follow the High King's Loop, the Bishop's Walk, or the heritage trail to Bolton Library, the old city wall, and more. Enjoy the variety of shops and cafés while you discover the rich history of Cashel.

Clonmel

52.35295, -7.70156
discoverclonmel.ie

As Tipperary's largest town, Clonmel offers a vibrant mix of heritage, shopping, and outdoor activities. Browse boutiques, enjoy the cafés and restaurants, or explore sites like the Main Guard in the town centre, or Saint Patrick's Well, a couple of kilometres outside the town, situated in a sheltered valley with the sound of water echoing all around. It is said that St. Patrick and St. Declan first met at this tranquil site 1,600 years ago. With its ruined church and cross in the centre of the artificial lake, it is a beautiful mix of ancient heritage and modern landscaping.

Outdoor enthusiasts can enjoy the Suir Blueway or East Munster Way, or the Multi-purpose sports facility on the edge of town, built on a 1.88-hectare site, incorporating athletics tracks; playground with zip wires, skatepark, a cycle (pump) track and a 1km walking trail. The town also hosts an array of lively festivals, celebrating local culture and creativity.

Cloughjordan

52.94295, -8.03834
cloughjordan.ie

Set in rolling countryside and brimming with history and charm, visit the Thomas MacDonagh Museum, explore Ireland's first ecovillage, and take a self-guided heritage tour. Enjoy the variety of shops, studios and cafés, stroll through Knockanacree Wood and Scohaboy Bog, and visit the community farm. Don't miss the Harry Clarke stained glass windows at the Catholic Church of Saints Michael and John.

TIME TO DISCOVER

Fethard

52.46597, -7.69272
visitfethard.com

The medieval town wall, the most complete in Ireland, dates from 1292 when King Edward I of England provided the walls for protection. Fethard, surrounded by lush stud farms, is home to the world's top thoroughbred racehorses with a museum dedicated to the history of the horse. Explore the town's heritage, from historic buildings to equine roots, and get active in the town park, a vibrant hub for sport and recreation.

Nenagh

52.86443, -8.19755
nenagh.ie

Nenagh is home to the imposing Nenagh Castle with its stunning walled garden. The market town offers a diverse range of shops, and artisan eateries. Visit the Nenagh Heritage Centre and the Nenagh Genealogy Centre, located in the former Gaol complex, and explore the exhibitions at the Nenagh Arts Centre and tourist information office. Journey to nearby Lough Derg and its pretty picturesque villages of Dromineer, Garrykennedy and Terryglass, popular with visitors, where one can enjoy lakeside bars, restaurants and a host of watersports and outdoor activities.

TIPPERARY VISITOR DISCOVERY GUIDE

Roscrea

52.95528, -7.79802
www.tipperary.com

Roscrea, one of Ireland's oldest towns, grew around St Crónán's 7th century monastery. Explore remnants of its early history, including the impressive Round Tower, High Cross, and the Romanesque doorway of St Crónán's Church. Visit 13th century Roscrea Castle and the elegant Damer House, and stroll past the 15th century Franciscan Friary. This Heritage Town offers rich history, unique architecture, and a warm welcome.

Templemore

52.79487, -7.83984
templemore.ie

Templemore is a town of ancient ruins and miracles, nestled at the foot of the Devil's Bit Mountain. Explore Templemore Town Park with its serene lakes and woodland walks. Discover historic sites like the Black Castle and the Church of the Sacred Heart. Known as the home of An Garda Síochána, Templemore blends history, nature, and community.

Tipperary Town

52.47358, -8.16177
tipperarytown.ie

With panoramic views of the Galtee Mountains, 19th century architecture, iconic clock tower, heritage centre, charming shop fronts and cafés. On the edge of town stand the Tipperary Hills, a natural group of hills formed during the Ice Age; centuries of Anglo-Normans actions has left them with a fascinating story. Over 20 acres, featuring accessible trails, picnic areas, a Norman Motte, Heritage Trail, Pitch and Putt Course.

Thurles

52.67904, -7.81352
thurles.ie

'The Home of Hurling,' Thurles has a rich sporting heritage with the GAA founded here in 1884. Enjoy a hurling match at Semple Stadium, explore The Source Arts Centre, Lar na Pairce and tourist information centre, and experience a town that blends modern amenities and historic charm. Nearby Cabragh Wetlands (4km), a freshwater semi-natural floodplain habitats on the River Suir, with a variety of wildlife and paths, open year round.

Loughmore

52.75640, -7.82962
www.tipperary.com

Loughmore offers a glimpse into a cross-section of significant Irish history. Explore the ruins of the 13th century Augustinian Abbey, admire Loughmore Castle, once the seat of the Purcells, Barons of Loughmore. Visit the 19th century Cormack Memorial and The Old Mill, nestled by the River Suir. For a taste of local flavour, enjoy tea at the community-owned Cottage Shop and Tearooms.

Lorrha

53.09311, -8.12280
visitlorrhadorrha.com

Once a thriving monastic centre, Lorrha boasts the remains of a 13th century friary, St. Ruadhan's Church, and connections to the famed Stowe Missal. Wander its quiet lanes, explore Redwood Castle nearby, and experience the charm of this village near Lough Derg.

TIME TO ENJOY

Whether you are looking for family fun, open air adventures, or local flavours, you'll find plenty to enjoy in Tipperary where there's always more to explore.

For details on any of the experiences below, simply scan the QR code using your phone's camera – just hover and tap to unlock even more of what Tipperary has to offer.

Image: Denis Vahey

Festivals and Events

County wide

Discover the vibrant festivals and events held across Tipperary throughout the year. From music and arts to heritage, sports and outdoor adventures, there's something for everyone. Celebrate Irish culture with traditional music, literature, and theatre, or enjoy food festivals and seasonal celebrations. Whether you're looking for family-friendly fun or lively entertainment, check event details to plan your visit.

Horse Racing

Tipperary Town, Clonmel, Thurles

Experience the excitement and tradition of horse racing at the county's three iconic venues. Tipperary Racecourse plays host to the sport at the highest level with both Graded National Hunt and Group Flat races. Clonmel Racecourse (Powerstown Park) is famed for its undulating National Hunt track, while Thurles Racecourse is known for its accessibility and intimate atmosphere.

Activities

From water sports on Lough Derg to horse trekking across valleys, adventure awaits in every corner of the county. Explore scenic cycling routes, tackle an obstacle course, try your hand at kayaking or fishing. With activities for all ages and abilities, there's something for everyone.

Golf

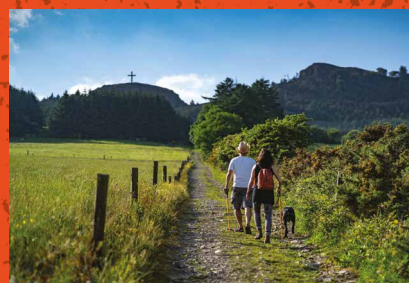

Tee off in County Tipperary and enjoy top-class golf courses set in stunning landscapes. From championship fairways to scenic parklands, each course offers a unique challenge for all skill levels. With excellent facilities, including practice areas, pro shops, and clubhouse dining, you'll find the perfect spot to play and relax.

Family Fun

Whether it's wildlife encounters, sensory gardens, or riverside walks, there's something for all ages to enjoy. Paddle, cycle, and explore the Suir Blueway, where history and nature come together. Enjoy hands-on experiences at open farms, let loose in indoor play centres, or challenge the family to a game of bowling or putting.

Walks and Trails

Tipperary offers an extensive variety of walks and hikes for all levels, from scenic riverside strolls to challenging mountain treks. Explore the Galtee, Knockmealdown, and Silvermine ranges, meander through ancient woodlands, or wander historic boglands. Looking for a short loop, a long-distance trail, a route steeped in legend, or even a Pilgrim Path, Tipperary's landscapes have something for every adventurer.

Farmers' Markets

Delve into the vibrant farmers' markets of County Tipperary, where local producers bring fresh, seasonal food directly to the community. These markets offer everything from organic fruit and vegetables to artisan cheeses, baked goods, and handmade crafts. Meet the growers, taste the best of the region, and experience the welcoming atmosphere of Tipperary's thriving market culture.

Tipperary Food Experiences

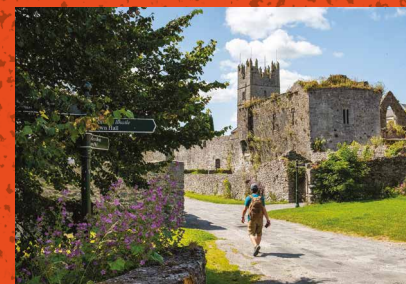

Witness the dedication behind Tipperary's finest food and drink with immersive farm experiences. Get behind-the-scenes at working farms, meet skilled producers, and explore traditional and modern techniques. Tours can include tastings, hands-on workshops, and scenic farm walks. Pre-booking and minimum group size is often required.

Crafts and Gifts

Discover unique hand-crafted gifts and artworks in Tipperary's creative hubs. From locally made pottery and fine art to bespoke jewellery and artisan crafts, these independent shops and galleries celebrate Irish craftsmanship. Whether you're looking for a special souvenir or a one-of-a-kind piece, these spaces are filled with creative treasures.

Hidden Gems

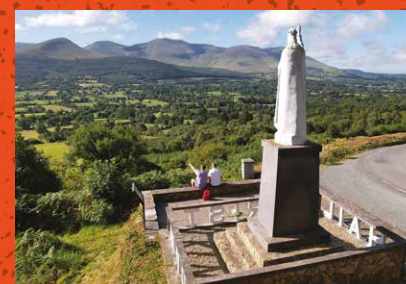

Step off the beaten path and explore the magic of Tipperary's past, where every stone tells a story. These hidden gems include ancient abbeys, castle ruins, forgotten high crosses. There are also elegant historic homes, some passed down through generations, where legendary hospitality awaits. All bringing Ireland's past to life.

Tourist Information

Tourist Information locations around Tipperary offer expert advice on local attractions, walking routes, hidden gems, accommodation, and transport. Whether you're planning your next stop or seeking recommendations, drop in or call for personalised assistance.

Viewing Points

Take the scenic route and discover Tipperary's most breathtaking viewpoints, all accessible by car or by foot. Wind through mountain passes, pause at panoramic lookouts like The Vee or The Lookout, Portroe, and soak in stunning landscapes along the way. Whether you're chasing golden sunsets or misty morning vistas, these hidden gems are worth slowing down for.

Comhairle Contae Thiobraid Árann
Tipperary County Council

Time for TIPPERARY

EXPERIENCE THE PAST AND PRESENT

TIME FOR TIPPERARY

IRELAND'S ANCIENT EAST™
Wander Through Time

Ireland's Hidden HEARTLANDS

see more at TIPPERARY.COM